1) Applicant declaration & consent

I confirm that the information I have given is correct. I understand that if any information I have provided is found to be false you may withdraw any offer of housing, or if I have already moved into a Hope into Action property you may take legal action, which may result in you asking me to move out.

I understand that withholding any information which raises the risk element of my assessment may also result in me losing my accommodation and support. The first 28 days of my license will act as a 'probationary period.'

I give permission for you to obtain further information from other relevant agencies, which may include Probation, Social Services, local authority housing departments, local authority housing benefit departments, the Police, Local Authority and benefit agencies, amongst others.

Under the Data Protection Act 1998 we are required to obtain consent to share information about you with other agencies and organisations who may be involved in providing services to you. You have a right to prevent this and therefore you do not have to consent if you don't want your information shared. However, it may be difficult to provide you with the services you need if you do not give your consent.
